

News from the Prayer Path

Leanna Lindsey Hollis M.D. Director of Intercessory Prayer and Outreach

The New Website Has Launched

After months of dreaming, planning, consulting, and hard work, the all-new leannahollis.com site has launched.

Thanks to your partnership and the great efforts of Blake Wages, the new website has a fresh, younger look and feel. Navigation is easy and it's bright and inviting. It's fully functional (as of 2/7/18) and is an everything-in-one-place tool for prayer and outreach. It's too early to tell about traffic, but the reviews have been very encouraging. Please pray for viewers who long to have a life-changing encounter with Christ, and for words that will draw them to Him. (Current features on the right. Coming attractions below.) Check us out: www.leannahollis.com

1

UPCOMING EVENTS

Want to attend a retreat or teaching session? Check the schedule online.

2

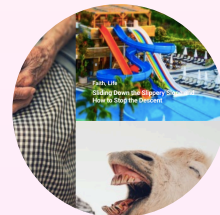

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Want to help? Sign up online.

3

FREEBIES

Scripture/photo printables will be available soon. Check the store.

Lines from Leanna

The blog has a new colorful, easy-to-navigate home.

Prayer

Learn about prayer concerns and join in intercession.

Online Store

Purchase print books, e-books, and more.

Student Outreach

We asked God for just one, and He gave him.

I've assisted Dr. Derwood Tutor for more than a year with Fellowship of Christian Students at Fillmore. It's been a difficult and discouraging work. Our session with the students is limited to one hour a month, during their lunch time. They rotate in and out of Fillmore, so we may only see them once. Change has been very difficult to recognize. I've often wondered if I was wasting my time.

This week, however, God showed up in an amazing way. A new student joined us on Monday. He was angry and refused to look at us. He kept his head down most of the time. Derwood shared about salvation and I shared about the love of God and choosing between a lifestyle of hate and a lifestyle of love.

Tuesday, the young man returned, New Testament in hand. "My name's in there now," he said, as he handed the Bible to Dr. Tutor. "Did you accept Jesus?" He nodded. Yes. He'd accepted Christ in the past, but he had a transforming encounter, a new face, and a new attitude. His grin was worth it all. Your partnership made his transformation of faith possible.

Please join in prayer for:

1. Wisdom in time management. There is more to do than hours in the day.
2. Healing of recent cornea problems.
3. We've been asked to consider helping with FCS at a second school. We need male mentors willing to disciple the boys.
4. Speaking at women's retreat February 24-25, 2018. See website for details and join us if you can.
5. Speaking at TCPS elementary school chapel on March 26, 27, 2018.
6. Attending writers' conference March 17, 2018 in Memphis.

YOUR PARTNERSHIP MAKES THIS MINISTRY POSSIBLE

Leanna has served as Director of Intercessory Prayer and Outreach since 2016. She is a peer-to-peer funded missionary, and is raising her own support. Your partnership is a invaluable part of this ministry.

You can donate online at globaloutreach.org or by mail at :
Global Outreach International P.O. Box 1 Tupelo MS 38828 Be sure to include account #4841 on the check memo line

GOI is an accredited member of the Evangelical
Council for Financial Accountability.

