The Whisper Gathering 2018

Learning to listen for and obey the Gentle Whisper of God.

Registration has begun for this year's Whisper Gathering at FCR Crows' Neck Retreat Center. This is an amazing time of Bible study, prayer, repentance and fun. Women who attended last year described the weekend this way: Freeing. Hearing God's voice. Reconnection with Jesus. Awakening. Fellowship. Renewal. Refuge. Reassuring. Reconnecting. Rest. Respite. Renewing. Life changing. Inspiring. Sign up today. Share with your contacts.

Transforming Tupelo

Your gifts make supplemental weekend food possible for students with nutritional insecurity.

Genesis Competition

My first novel is a finalist in the American Christian Fiction Writers Genesis competition!

Transforming Tupelo: School Supplemental Food Program

Together, we've provided supplemental food and shared the love of God with students at a local school for troubled youth every Friday this school term. We're supplying food to 42% of the students, with an average of six students each week. The school's enrollment (now 21) will grow (usually to around 50) as the school term progresses.

The weekly contact has strengthened relationships with the students. Four high school students and five middle school students made public declarations of faith this week. You helped make this possible!

A feeding program must be operational for three months before it can be considered for the food bank, but, with your help, we've managed to pack bags for an average of $5.00/bag even without their assistance. Parent/guardian consent forms are required but this does limit participation somewhat.

Skid row, Los Angeles

Prayer needs:

1. For students to return their participation/ consent forms.
2. Attending ACFW conference in Nashville. Prayers for new connections and growth in writing skills.
3. I'll be traveling 9/24 to Los Angeles with a group from Hope Church for a week-long mission trip at the Dream Center, doing work with the homeless, including on Skid Row and in Watts. Prayers for safety and for us to learn new ways to minister in Tupelo.

Leanna joined Global Outreach as a peer-to-peer funded missionary in 2016. She's raising her own support and needs your help to make ministry projects, like the Transforming Tupelo/Feeding Fillmore program, possible.
