

News from the Prayer Path

Leanna Lindsey Hollis M.D.

Director Intercessory Prayer and Outreach

What beautiful, world-changing work you did this past month! Thank you for serving and giving to the Lord in such amazing ways.

Can God use sweet potatoes to change the world? More than 20 volunteers say yes, indeed. We doubled the bags inside where it was warm before heading outside to load the potatoes. Afterward, they filled wagons with bags of potatoes and went door to door in a local low-income neighborhood, offering prayer and potatoes. Almost everyone wanted both. It was hard to tell who received the biggest blessing, but our volunteers were pretty sure they did and confirmed that it's truly more blessed to give than receive.

Our Drive Through Prayer event was delayed a week due to the snowstorm. Every car brought a divine appointment and we prayed with all who came through the doors of the church. Such sweet times. When we asked one lady if we could pray with her, she responded with a hearty yes. "I really need prayer but it's not a big enough need to go down front at church and ask for prayer." We heard those words over and over again. Needed prayer. Didn't ask. On a beautiful Tuesday afternoon, everyone who came by received prayer, including the pest control man!

No need is too big for God but no need is too small, either. God still answers prayer.

These sweet ladies are part of our Whisper Connection online Bible study. We're celebrating our one-year anniversary of meeting together this month and still meet three times a week. We're studying Revelation AND doing Experiencing God together. (Yes. At the same time!) They see God at work in our weekend food outreach to at-risk students and have joined with Him by packing food bags and praying over them and for the students every week. They recycle our empty boxes, too!

I took a rare week of much-needed vacation during our local schools' spring break. Instead of traveling, I stayed home and enjoyed the spring weather, worked in my garden, played with my dogs, cooked yummy food and spent a fun weekend with my son.

Please pray for (and consider helping with):

1. I'm busy designing prayer resources for churches and missionaries. Please pray for this process and for efficiency as I write/design/plan.
2. I'm praying about a one-day, in-person Whisper Gathering event in the fall. Pray for wisdom and discernment about the effect of the pandemic and how to proceed safely.
3. In April, I'll begin the process of wading through hundreds of stories/devotionals/blog posts and revamping my website to better reach people for Jesus. More of Him. Less of me.
4. Continued missionary support through prayer, emails, virtual prayer walks, and more.
5. The weekly work of memorizing Scripture with a young student, distributing food for students, designing and setting up prayer stations for a local church and so much more...
6. Pledged monthly financial support has improved, thanks to your generosity, but is still below the monthly need. I am deeply grateful for your partnership.
